Low the Colonia Coloni Rec' Jan 11 18/7 Wisconsin Natural History Society. Secretary's Office, 27 Erie Street. Dr. Gro. Engelwann, St. Louis, Mo. Dear Sir, I send you by This mail a memorial on our lamented friend &. a. Laphan, for knowing his careel so well will Strobably find little that is new to you, but still will be interested in all relating to him and his work. I would be obliged if you would let me know how long your acquaintance with her. Lapham dates back and what estimate you place on his botanical work. In our museum There are a large minher I plants me received from him, in fact almost all the plants that m. Peter Engelman did not collect were domated by Dan Laphane. hv. En gelman, I suppose you are aware, now hes under the shade of our beautiful "Forest Home", where The cares of life mull not disturb him, now the song of the birds now the fragrance of our wild woods will delight him Thre is not one left that we young disciples of science can look up to de al leader. Hoping for The honor of the answer dremain Yours very respectfully Charles Maun MISSOURI BOTANICAL

copyright reserved

GARDEN

Watural History Society. Secretary's Office, 27 Brie Sirect. Let Wen allerin and Staring 1800. in a server and love our land the file C. C. Lowerer, from harmon mere Concert les provents the test the the test of the the the search the series then to parte who the me an tendent mise the petition the there is the state of the same the transfer of the transfer o " Review thought the colone of med and continued the person Laphone Laster boal have he and in hat see a feel on the see and the formal see the see of the see at the contract the trace of the month of the Part one marker their are are a large mainte pelantar met ceaned the ment them may part helice at all the Helmits That has the Celebras MISSOURI ENGELMANN PAPERS in the state of the state of the where any part preceded the total part there is the end deceración can la ter la la de de a la lecation. A STATE OF THE STA MISSOURI 10 BOTANICAL copyright reserved GARDEN